13. Please describe this person's greatest strengths as a Instructional Assistant.

Please keep your comments constructive and professional, abiding by the Principles of Community

- Added interesting insights to the course.
- attended all lecture and well educated in the subject
- easy to understand.
- I think the TA knew the subject very well!
- She answers the questions on the discussion board.
- She was super great! She was very helpful and cool when I came to her office hours. She stayed late to help me, and for that I thank her.
- She was very helpful as a TA and answered questions well. She graded assignments thoroughly.
- They're just a great person
- Willing to help.

14. Please describe this person's greatest weaknesses as a Instructional Assistant.

Please keep your comments constructive and professional, abiding by the Principles of Community

- hardly participated in class.
- It's not exactly a weakness, but usually my likeliness of attending my TA's office hours is based on how they interact with the students and professor during class. She doesn't say much, so I never actually went to her office hour because she doesn't seem as approachable.
- Quiet during lectures, does not have a direct visible function aside from office hours.
- Slightly quiet - I liked what she had to say, I wish she'd say things louder and more often.
- tends to be fairly timid
- They did seem a bit shy. They could've inserted themselves into the classroom discussion a bit more.

15. Do you have any other comments to add to your evaluation?

Please keep your comments constructive and professional, abiding by the Principles of Community

- She seems really nice regardless of not talking to her.
